

Profile DALE MCFARLANE

Redlands
Realty

As a young and enthusiastic sales professional, Dale's energy is infectious!

His down to earth and friendly nature is complimented by a real determination to achieve the best possible result for his clients. They can be confident that his dedicated attitude and proactive approach to real estate will make purchasing or selling their home seamless and stress free.

Born, raised and currently residing in the area, the Redlands are in Dale's blood. Whether it's involvement with local sports clubs, or time spent supporting his family in their Bayside business; the community is where his passion comes from. Combine his extensive Redlands market knowledge with a true understanding of service and you quickly appreciate how Dale is an asset to anyone in the market.

Real People with Real Integrity

With experience in driving sales through innovative marketing, Dale's clients can rest assured that he's qualified at finding the right marketing strategies for selling their home. He'll attract the best buyers by taking advantage of the latest technology as well as the more traditional methods.

"Dale was such a wonderful agent to work with in helping to sell our home and finding the new one. The whole process was so simple and we couldn't have asked for a better experience! We highly recommend and will most definitely be using Dale again on our next sale and purchase" -
Cameron & Sarah McCready

0422 882 990
dale@redlandsrealty.com.au